

Name & Surnames:

READING

□ Insects

The largest group of invertebrates is insects. There are many different types of insects. Their bodies have three parts: the head, the thorax and the abdomen.

- The head has two antennae, a mouth and eyes.
- On the thorax are six legs and two pair of wings.
- The reproductive organs and the digestive system are in the abdomen.

- a) What are the largest group of invertebrates? _____
- b) How many parts do their bodies have? _____
- c) How many antennae are there on the head? _____
- d) How many legs are there on their thorax? _____
- e) How many pairs of wings do they have? _____
- f) Where are the reproductive organs and the digestive system? _____
- g) Why spiders are not insects? _____
- _____

Label the insect

